

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 26, 1948

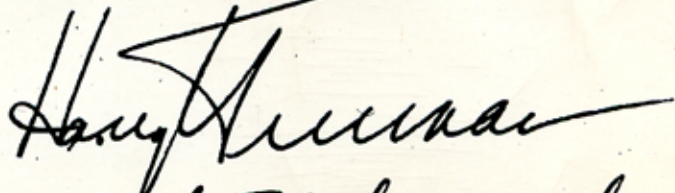

Dear Mr. Evjue:

The reason I have not written you sooner is that the White House has been simply swamped with mail since the election.

I want you to know how much I appreciate your letter. I well remember our meeting at Madison and your prediction that Wisconsin would go Democratic. I know that THE CAPITAL TIMES played a very substantial part in bringing about that result, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I trust that I shall deserve your confidence and support in the difficult years ahead of us.

Very sincerely yours,

Wisconsin is a great State - and a cross section of the real, honest American.

Mr. William T. Evjue,
Editor,
THE CAPITAL TIMES,
Madison, Wisconsin.
