

Edith Head Hollywood's most noted designer

TELLS HOW SHE DRESSES THE STARS!

(AND HOW YOU CAN LEARN TO DRESS LIKE A STAR)

IN this fascinating, behind-the-scenes story of her fabulous career in Hollywood, Paramount's Fashion Chief tells what she has learned in more than twenty years of dressing the most beautiful women in the world: Marlene Dietrich, Ingrid Bergman, Rita Hayworth, Sophia Loren, Grace Kelly, and many, many others.

THE DRESS DOCTOR is a star-studded autobiography, the heart-warming story of how a ranch girl became a famous designer — and the trusted friend and confidante of the stars. Her intimate fitting room close-ups of scores of these celebrated actors and actresses shed new light on their off-screen personalities.

And to top it all, Edith Head's Complete Guide for "do-it-yourself dress doctors," including a section on what to wear for every occasion, gives the practical advice that every woman wants: the magic that can transform her into a beautiful woman.
